Sat Nam! Namaste!

T: Mother and all of us are ONE – so we call on Mother Sekhmet's energy IN US!

R: frequencies, emotions are very high: stay in our high heart, and judge no one. It is about the ending of a BIG CYCLE which is why Mother comes now to complete this cycle.

- T: her question for Mother – there is still an undealt-with situation with P-E Joe Biden.
- Brings up an article about Michelle Obama whose Twitters are included in it
 - Someone they know saw a picture of Barack Obama who was crying – tears running down his face! Happened before at Sandy Hook . . .

2021-01-07 'I Hurt For Our Country,' Michelle Obama Draws Attention to Racial Disparities After U.S. Capitol Riot

Barack Obama Blasts President Trump for Inciting Supporters Ahead of Storming of Capitol

Another article: Publication of Rep Josh Hawley's book is being halted by Simon and Schuster

- Quotes the names of several articles relative to opinions about Hawley's actions with the rioters

CONFERENCE CALL

RB: Don Jr videoed the riot – didn't look like the white house; the woman who was trampled was wearing a t shirt with 'don't step on me'!

RGM: all across Australia for last 4 -6 hours people can't use their credit cards at the grocery store - yes this could be called cyber warfare

Facebook: they have an entire dept trying to figure out why Telegram is more popular than What's App !

T: how to get on Telegram?

RGM: Go to google find it and download

- can talk to anyone on your contact list – calls are encrypted!
- Can have your own private zoom room – have to set it up first

Caller: how are the missing people removed – 4 Billion from the 7.8 billion on the planet

T: They are taken underground

- the Chinese had all the dead buried in a very, very deep hole and burned them – could see the smoke in the ISS

T: reminds us all that it's not about the time – we have to do this together! ! !

Caller: what do humans do at this time -

- breathe long deep and slowly
- smile because it works
- believe in the magic –

- EVERY SINGLE PERSON WHO CAME TO EARTH AT THIS TIME CAME TO TAKE PART IN THIS
- STEP BACK AND SEE THE BIGGER STORY ALL THE TIME!
- HAVE TO SEE THE GLOBAL PICTURE TO TAKE PART LOCALLY
- AND THINGS WON'T GET DONE IF WE DON'T CONTRIBUTE

RGM: what about all the people who don't have money for such things as internet etc etc

T: they are using the tribal consciousness and are connected to nature

Question: What about those who are not tribal? Like those storming the White House

T: there are computers on the street corners in locations in India – kids access them at the end of the day

- it is possible to find electronic connections: like at one's public library

S: in rural areas of Peru – someone has some kind of electronic connection in the neighbourhoods

- about the jungle she doesn't know

T: places in Africa – the father had 6 kids and he was 30 miles from home – he walked there and worked for 3 months and then walked home for a short time – copper extraction

RGM: most of the kids in the tunnels - South Africa for the diamonds

- in Indonesia – about finding the veins of rare earth minerals
- when Keshe was in Linz: you want a ton of gold, give me in 10 minutes – the Material Enhancement Machine can make it
- Wuihei – cell phone company - has already bought 10,000 enhancement machines to make better copper to enhance their cell phones
 - This is why the US gave China so much hassle: holding the daughter of the phone company: they didn't want to see China get ahead of Apple

- The ones in AZ for 6 units for health and 6 units for space exploration
 - the material enhancement machines are for space in order to create building materials on other planets, etc

RGM: background on the gold business – should the US want to buy 10 metric tonnes of gold from – transfer is done by issuing certificates

- Buy a gold coin for $2000 and the coin is stamped $50 – meaning that is what you'd get if you turned in the coin when the economy collapses - $50 is the worth of the coin, and the rest is inflation . . .

S: about what we do in the meantime? Focus on our own development - all the inner work

Pa: who did the shooting at the capital?

- One lady in her later 20s was trampled to death; the rioters were pushing to get into the building; it was a capital police man who shot – dressed in civilian clothes, not in uniform -

T: There were people who were agent provocateurs – don't know WHO they are!

CL: if we have agreed that there are Black Ops with own budgets; patriots in the military; those loyal to Trump - all involved one way or the other

- How is it no national guard show up until after – when there is usually cooperation

- Some guard showed up on Wed

CL: the mayor did ask for Nat' l Guard but with no guns for fear of lives being taken

T: Trump ordered the pentagon to order the national guard to stand down

- Note: the Capital Guard answer to the Congress! ! !
 - so there are people being forbidden to do what they should be doing
 - and congress people were locked up and couldn't call for help

CL: the capital police were compromised it seems from the beginning

T: Congress has the responsibility and the authority to call for Capital Police

CL: the largest police force in the country was not prepared! ! ! 2000 officers for 16 sq m or less and the intel was already out there

T: they were well prepared not to respond! ! ! because the Dark side made sure that their higher ups were incarcerated so they could act – they handpicked the capital police who were working with the Make America White Again movement

CL: many capital police gave them a wink and a nod

RB: the cameras were all there

P: this operation and cameras were already there like the operation of 9/11

WHAT WAS GOING ON behind the scenes – for us NOT to see . . .?

RB: pristine wilderness – only place left in NA - Alaska was auctioning off land up there

- the drilling site in Alaska – resources sold oil drilling, shale
- what else didn't we see?

- Today DJT announced not going to be at the inauguration – can be arrested after noon Jan 20

RB: got all the congress people in one small space – no masks

Someone found out Trump and Giuliani called certain Congress people, as Giuliani called a wrong number and the phone was picked up by a reporter or someone else who realized what was going on . . .

Bill: To RGM – where is the factory for the Keshe Fdn going to be in AZ?

RGM: In Mesa- and it won't be a factory. Exact location will be announced when it is ready to open

- doctors being trained right now
- there will be proper announcements

- THERE WILL BE NO LISTS – will have to work out the logistics - someone with a hip replacement can't go into the machine – doctors are being trained to find out what technology will help people

Pa: there are healers can scan the body eg, Qi Gong

RGM: every single machine is checked by Mr Keshe himself! And the machines will be geared to the energy of the location as the energy pulled in from the atmosphere surrounding any specific location

Question: how does a fully hologram suddenly decide he can leave the country?

- R has heard will try to go to FL on Wed pm and then maybe to Ankara!

T: And he won't go back to Russia – there is a tape he doesn't want to have anything to do with!

Pa: read this about him taking a girl who looked a lot like his daughter – from Rockaway, NY outside of NYC; girl was abducted from there and family threatened -

- and there is the Tiffany Johnson incident [which hasn't been completely dealt with]

- If he's a hologram, does he pack up his server and go?

T: he's a solid image hologram – someone can still turn him off at will - and KOS has access at his finger tips!

- T reminds us that they will be rounded up and taken to Dracos – they RGM: people want to see justice !

T: They will be frogmarched on to the star ships – we will see it all -

- twitter, facebook values all dropping – and Trump is banned everywhere

Question: how long does a clone last?

- there are 100s of clones of lots of people ; when the clone is done, it's done – no repairs – just go to a new clone – another hologram

- The thing with Julian means Hillary will get hauled to the carpet

RGM: remember Chelsea Clinton's apt? That apartment used to be a medical unit so it was ready for the installation of a cloning machine there . . . why she's taken there

So: can no longer trust the Schumann Resonance charts in the west – the one in Italy is accurate

The Great Bell Chant (The End Of Suffering)

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F1ZwaEzMtJw&ab_channel=Mindfulness360-CenterForMindfulness

Read by Thich Nath Hanh, chanted by brother Phap Niem

MOTHER / ALCYONE

[M/A]

Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One! In the Office of the Christ, and only in the Office of the Christ, we invoke the loving energies of St Germain and the Violet Flame!

Greetings, Children of Ra!

Indeed, this moment - with the sound of the Great Bell - we are in that moment where the Shift of the Ages is transpiring, as we are getting quite the experience about what it is to have that human experience as [when] we are souls.

T: what does this say about the heart of humanity with what is going on?

M/A: It is about the Great Transfiguration from the old time line of Lady Kali who puts away her necklace of skulls, and we move into Sat Yuga where we dance with Lord Krishna and Rada. And we set aside the tools of war - no more!

- It is about this great moment; the whole local system is saying ENOUGH! Now's the time as energies pour in!
- If you think it's hot in the kitchen, it's gonna be a little hotter as it is about the finishing touches, metaphorically speaking, on the stew. It is this moment where we take our power back with love; this is exponentially happening in spite of the best efforts of Her wayward children to gum up the works!
 - They can try but there is only love pouring in: if you cannot comply with that, you cease to exist in the realms of higher energy 'cos this form - you gotta embrace Love if you are dancing with the devil in the back yard! What a challenge!

T: They were doing it in the front yard!

M/A: Yes! What She can say is: at all at this moment, can't be neutral on a moving train as Howard Zinn said. The Time is now – and we shall study war not more!

- As we began this story with all of creation - all the colours of the rainbow aren't just two colours: would be a very dull existence! It is out of sync with the rest of the universe, so to speak.
 - And for the last 26, 826 years, Her wayward children have been playing with these xenophobic ideas of black or white. The world does not exist in 2 colours - there are 144,000 different vibrations, the variations on a theme of the colours of the rainbow - along with 144,000 strands of DNA within this temple of the living energy of All That Is.
- The time right now – let's say: tensions are running high! Emotions off the charts – and peace and love and compassion are the answers. Picking up a bazooka is not going to solve any issues.
 - Gotta create a little more stuff – that's the deal with how we deal with . . . things out, if you will.
- Let's say . . . it brings some lightness to a heavy story yet [there are] 520 years of missing history and Her story of the original people who came here from Sirius, from Orion, from many other places – yes, the Aboriginal Moabite nations are older than that [520 years] – threw out an arbitrary figure.

T: we're talking about thousands and thousands [of years]

M/A: speaking of the 520 years of the colonization in the moment –

T: this little piece of Turtle Island that is part of a bigger piece of Turtle Island

M/A: Yes - [the democratic experiment which is on the table – T] it is about how we, as community of living souls who have been tapped on the shoulder, if you will:

- we gotta mission for you! It's the mission of all missions: it's about saving a planet!
We all knew when we got here how deep this story would go: now it's full circle . . . that were, . . . are no more

[NB: there are words missing – there had been some difficulties on Friday night with Mother's] [voice going in and out; the podcast is somewhat better than Friday night's transmission, yet] [there are still glitches . . .]

- How we do the next step is within ourselves [who are] rising to the occasion – [not with] violence and negativity – it is about love and compassion, higher wisdom that, as we meet someone we don't know – and they might even be from another star system - how we greet each other with dignity, respect, compassion -

T: have we gone as low as we can go?

M/A: She would say so!

T: Only one way to go and that's up!

M/A: Yes – let's say: we're all here

T: Mother having drink of water

M/A: Yes . . . in to lies that are being put out about this process we're going through – this ? ? ?
experiment:

- it goes to the higher realms – the eight - the wise councils of elders, here, now – already taking place. As the events of the last few days . . . in these . . . are bringing balance, ecstasy to the planet with the darkest shadows – the light pouring into this planet cannot be stopped one iota and we are ascending - it is a given.

- [How] we deal with our abilities and our ascension: it is a real test here. We are on a mission; the planet asked us to show up, along with trillions of other life forms, who work in unison with divine will, divine love, divine compassion.
As one is harmed, all are harmed; as one is healed, all are healed.

- Right at this moment, . . . the Law of One . . . She will say it again: comprehend this:
 - This moment right at . . . the stories about these legendary folks aren't legendary any more – the beings She speaks of are right here amongst us.
 - Very soon now - She's not going to say what time – yet the time is right in this moment of this critical, unsure, constitutional crisis of inter-galactic proportions - because what affects this planet affects the whole

T: It's upsetting the apple cart and it was necessary, it's still necessary, and we still have to hold the whole story accountable – and trying to rip someone's mask off while he's being crushed in the doorway and screaming bloody murder while it's going on.

T: Mother: did we say help loud enough?

M/A: She would say - in this unprecedented time: expect out of left field – unannounced - the Captain to take the microphone and give us a lesson of wisdom, compassion and an ancient story

T: the thing is that the whole corrupt system and its maze have to be access denied everywhere – is that happening?

M/A: Indeed! Let's say there will be no nuclear exchanges. All the rest of the stuff: She has the cosmic rainbow vacuum cleaner filled with water to take care of the rest of the story

- We flip the switch and suck up all the goo from the last 26,000 years! Not very pretty – petrified orc is a little chewy!

T: There's the other side of the story – a huge positive attitude that permeates everyone's consciousness . . .

M/A: We have a moment in time: don't under estimate Ms Kamala Harris – she's not just a toady for the big boys in Black: she knows her stuff

T: Why are you singling her out now?

M/A: Because she knows things that She is not at liberty - she is not allowed to say about their arrival

T: Is she going to have something to play to make from for it publically

M/A: Yes – how that comes about she's [or She!] not at liberty to say. Yet she is - as Dr Stephen Greer puts it, she's 'been read into' . . . will leave it there – it means she knows – and the next step is how this peaceful transition and transfiguration happens.

- The Lavender Lad has a part to play in this too, as he began the story called The New Atlantis, and the Founding Fathers who maybe were just a little too pale around the gills: maybe it was the aluminum powder on the face - got to the brain. The powdered wigs – We'll just say the orchestrations of the Divine mathematics about the Music of the Spheres is being brought into play at this time. Yes.

- She will leave it there

T: are we expecting the Music of the Spheres to enter soon?

M/A: The Cosmic clock: things have sped up exponentially; our planet is spinning way faster than it was last year –

- “faster” means the relationship to the rest of the solar system as we move across the Galactic Plane: all the planets are spinning a little faster and it has to do with the upliftment of the energies coming in from Galactic Center

T: So everyone feels like they're flying?

Are we going to keep our heads in the clouds and our feet on the ground anymore?

M/A: Yes - both/and. The scientists have already noticed that the planet's spinning faster than it was last year

T: They are not talking

M/A: Oh, they're talking but it's only in hushed whispers

- It is about this grand moment where we have the power to use it with love and wisdom; the graciousness to be kind and out of a way about taking care of the least among us at this moment –
 - as Grandma Chandra put it in her latest message: The light coming in that we are witnessing now hasn't been here before.
 - This is a new experience: as we embrace that light, absorb it – there are neutrinos, electrons, protons, photons, gamma rays, tachions – all of it that makes up this cosmic story – this soup [?] we call 'life'
 - Another way to put it is the plasma, gold dust, the elixir of all that is – are in the blood: remember that in these moments of trying times!

NB: Mother's voice has continued to go in and out for the entirety of her presentation . . .

Both: Greetings in the Light of the Most Radiant One! Kadoish, Kadoish, Kadoish – Adonai Sabbeoth

Rama Returns: Went to the Antarres Arcturus Midway Station; lots going on with these grand moments of bringing the Light in: so many ships, so many folks – like a convention!

- He's speaking about what the people of earth are not seeing: he is seeing from that vantage point - it is so HUGE with what's coming in the fleets upon fleets upon fleets that are already here!

T: 80 billion planetary systems and one little planet ascending to be the 33rd planet to do so

R: It's BIG DEAL! Passes the Talking Stick

The British courts decided not to extradite Julian Assange because of how terrible to the US prison system is. However he won't be released from jail on bail either. Lee Camp covers Assange's dilemma in the first episode of Redacted Tonight this year. The judge's decision not to extradite Assange still opened a precedent for the courts to censor journalists.

Also on this episode: In "Taking the News from Behind" Camp covers Congress passing a defence bill that fails to address people's needs in a pandemic, California businesses reaping the benefits from Prop 22, and more.

Natalie McGill and Camp get deeper into the details of the insurrection at the capitol. The world-shaking incident contrasts with the way US law enforcement cracked down on Black Lives Matter protests over the summer.

VARIOUS CITIES – JUNE 28: In this screengrab, Michelle Obama is seen during the 2020 BET Awards. The 20th annual Former First Lady Michelle Obama called attention on Twitter Thursday to the racial disparities she said were present during the U.S. Capitol riot Wednesday.

The former first lady tweeted a statement, saying that after she woke up to news of Rev. Raphael Warnock's election victory in Georgia Wednesday, her "heart had fallen harder and faster" than she could remember.

"Like all of you, I watched as a gang -- organized, violent and mad they'd lost an election -- laid siege to the United States Capitol. They set up gallows. They proudly waved the traitorous flag of the Confederacy through the halls. They desecrated the center of American government," Obama wrote.

Obama compared the Wednesday riots in Washington to that of the Black Lives Matter protests over the summer, asking if the rioters would have been treated the same way by police had they "looked like the folks who go to Ebenezer Baptist Church every Sunday."

"Yesterday made it painfully clear that certain Americans are, in fact, allowed to denigrate the flag and symbols of our nation. They've just got to look the right way," Obama wrote.

Obama finished her statement saying that it's up to each individual American to repair what has been broken by reaching out and listening to one another.

"It will be an uncomfortable, sometimes painful process. But if we enter into it with an honest and unwavering love to our country, then maybe we can finally start to heal," Obama wrote.

MICHELLE OBAMA

I woke up yesterday elated by the news of Reverend Raphael Warnock's election victory. He'll be Georgia's first Black senator, and I was heartened by the idea that the Senior Pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church—the home parish of Dr. King and a spiritual and organizational hub during the Civil Rights Movement—would be representing his state in the United States Senate.

In just a few hours, though, my heart had fallen harder and faster than I can remember. Like all of you, I watched as a gang—organized, violent, and mad they'd lost an election—laid siege to the United States Capitol. They set up gallows. They proudly waved the traitorous flag of the Confederacy through the halls. They desecrated the center of American government. And once authorities finally gained control of the situation, these rioters and gang members were led out of the building not in handcuffs, but free to carry on with their days. The day was a fulfillment of the wishes of an infantile and unpatriotic president who can't handle the truth of his own failures. And the wreckage lays at the feet of a party and media apparatus that gleefully cheered him on, knowing full well the possibility of consequences like these.

It all left me with so many questions—questions about the future, questions about security, extremism, propaganda, and more. But there's one question I just can't shake: What if these rioters had looked like the folks who go to Ebenezer Baptist Church every Sunday? What would have been different?

I think we all know the answer. This summer's Black Lives Matter protests were an overwhelmingly peaceful movement—our nation's largest demonstrations ever, bringing together people of every race and class and encouraging millions to re-examine their own assumptions and behavior. And yet, in city after city, day after day, we saw peaceful protestors met with brute force. We saw cracked skulls and mass arrests, law enforcement pepper spraying its way through a peaceful demonstration for a presidential photo op.

And for those who call others unpatriotic for simply taking a knee in silent protest, for those who wonder why we need to be reminded that Black Lives Matter at all, yesterday made it painfully clear that certain Americans are, in fact, allowed to denigrate the flag and symbols of our nation. They've just got to look the right way.

What do all those folks have to say now?

Seeing the gulf between the responses to yesterday's riot and this summer's peaceful protests and the larger movement for racial justice is so painful. It hurts. And I cannot think about moving on or turning the page until we reckon with the reality of what we saw yesterday. True progress will be possible only once we acknowledge that this disconnect exists and take steps to repair it. And that also means coming to grips with the reality that millions voted for a man so obviously willing to burn our democracy down for his own ego.

I hurt for our country. And I wish I had all the solutions to make things better. I wish I had the confidence that people who know better will act like it for more than a news cycle or two. All I know is that now is a time for true patriotism. Now is the time for those who voted for this president to see the reality of what they've supported—and publicly and forcefully rebuke him and the actions of that mob. Now is the time for Silicon Valley companies to stop enabling this monstrous behavior—and go even further than they have already by permanently banning this man from their platforms and putting in place policies to prevent their technology from being used by the nation's leaders to fuel insurrection.

And if we have any hope of improving this nation, now is the time for swift and serious consequences for the failure of leadership that led to yesterday's shame.

Thankfully, even in the darkness, there are glimmers of hope. It's something I imagine Reverend Warnock has preached about before—and I'm still heartened beyond belief that he's headed to Washington. I'm glad his fellow Georgian, Jon Ossoff is, too, and that together they'll help give control of Congress back to the only party that's shown that it can put our democracy above its own short-term political fortunes. I pray that every American, especially those who disagree with them, will give our new Congress, President-Elect Biden, and Vice-President-Elect Harris the chance to lead us in a better direction.

But make no mistake: The work of putting America back together, of truly repairing what is broken, isn't the work of any individual politician or political party. It's up to each of us to do our part. To reach out. To listen. And to hold tight to the truth and values that have always led this country forward. It will be an uncomfortable, sometimes painful process. But if we enter into it with an honest and unwavering love of our country, then maybe we can finally start to heal.

Calling it a "moment of great dishonor and shame for our nation," former President Barack Obama called on Republican lawmakers one day prior to speak out against President Donald Trump after a group of his supporters stormed the United States Capitol.

The former president issued a statement on Wednesday, saying that the actions of the rioters are the "consequences" of the rhetoric used by Trump in the aftermath of the 2020 presidential election, and said that Republicans and Democrats must work together to "restore a common purpose to our politics."

On Wednesday, thousands of angry supporters of President Donald Trump stormed the U.S. Capitol in a chaotic protest aimed at thwarting a peaceful transfer of power, forcing lawmakers to be rushed from the building and interrupting challenges to Joe Biden's Electoral College victory.

Both law enforcement and Trump supporters deployed chemical irritants during the hours-long occupation of the complex before it was cleared Wednesday evening.

Four people died, one of them a woman from San Diego who was shot and killed inside the Capitol. Three other people died after suffering "medical emergencies" related to the breach, said Robert Contee, chief of the city's Metropolitan Police Department.

D.C. police said Thursday that 68 people were arrested, with 25 of those for curfew violations and unlawful entry on the Capitol grounds. Another eight were arrested for curfew violations near the Capitol, D.C. police said.

Capitol police said 14 were arrested, most for unlawful entry, including a man from Illinois.
