D: INFORMATION ON Dr Keshe:

Introduction to the Keshe website

- There is a wikipedia on the foundation website: lots of definitions and answers to questions there too; also a first aid information page -
- The Kerry Ellis workshops are also good

Opening Comments from the Co-hosts:

Randy: Times are exciting; things are very positive once you shut off the TV, the newspapers and see how positive things are – the powers that were have no power now

- All of us on the planet are volunteers on this planet who came down to experience the 3rd dimension; we are in the process of moving onward and upward to the higher dimensions of consciousness – and we are our own creators.
 - We decided to come to this dimension and experience these physical bodies and physicality – and when we decide to do it, we can move to higher dimensions and pass on our experiences to those who have never been in physical bodies. This is why there are trillions and trillions of space beings watching us on the planet – we are taking everyone who wants to, to the higher levels
- What we have done to Mother Earth is inconceivable: what we have done to the atmosphere of the earth and other bodies; Mother Earth has done so much for humanity – to the air, water, soil,
- Last night the Keshe Foundation announced the creation of paint that contains GANS, as well as cell phone protectors!

VV: our thanks to Mr Keshe for his vision and what he has done for humanity

Omena: about consciousness – people are dealing with issues in all areas of their lives.

- As her focus is solutions, she is always looking for such; we don't get very far in finding solutions as we use the same energy to try & create the solution that we used to create the problem:
 - We really need a different level of energy to resolve issues than the energy which created it! And we have to ask for help to do this . . .
- What can I do about this problem? When we analyze it, we have options:
 - The realization can be when we look at the situation from a higher level: absolutely nothing, as it is not my problem.
 - Or I can ask what is my role in this situation? And then set about answering the question – and be sure to park your ego at the door!

COR: The Collective [TC] are sharing that things moving so quickly, we can scarcely keep up, and people are reacting to both the shifts on the planet as well as those within our own bodies and psyches – just breathe, stay in your body, stay in the present moment –

- Know that everyone on the planet is on a journey for which they have little preparation!
 - T C encourage us: go with the flow, don't push against this – this is the time of tremendous shift and change – will be far more than what we dream of, imagine, think about – just remain calm and don't go into reaction;
 - Live in the present, work things out as you go – one step at a time! Don't get ahead of yourself. And give thanks for what you do have!
 - Stay in your body and concentrate on your breath so you can stay in your body. And stay alert – remain very fluid.
 - Everyone is doing a brilliant job, they say, even if you think you're not: be kind and patient with yourselves.

Our Faction 3 White Knights – Rama and Tara [R, T]

[See <https://www.rainbowroundtable.net/rama-s-contacts> for info on Rama's contacts]

RAMA: Greetings! I can say that there are many wonderful things going on. And at the same time, the old parts of the matrix are falling apart, very much every day.

- More and more revelations are coming out of how deep this story goes, and how it's falling apart. I could say that what I'm being told, is that Yes, we are moving at quantum Lightspeed!
- There will be revelations coming out that have to do with how deep this story goes, and the players involved. I got a text message today from King of Swords, saying that the former Trump character is in boiling hot water, with a slew of lawsuits coming out.
- It goes deeper than that, because the old matrix is falling apart, and the Light coming in as we approach spring equinox, and there's a stellium occurring with three planets—everything is looking up!
 - Tonight is ShivaRatri, where Lord Shiva comes in and merges with his goddess Shakti from anti-matter into matter. This changes the whole story as well.
 - This happens every year right around this time, with Maha ShivaRatri. This is about the primordial energies coming in right now that Sandra Walter has talked about in recent messages, where there are quantum shifts going on, on our Sun.
 - This is affecting Earth. The magnetic fields—I don't know what to describe. One day you're feeling quite good, then by this time [of day], you're flat on your back.
 - The energies are about the Ascension symptoms, and it has to do with the magnetic waves, along with the gold dust. We gotta keep doing the sadhanas [Hindu for daily spiritual practice]—the meditations—and staying in the higher energies.
 - The maya [illusion] from the matrix is ongoing. Yet turn it all off, and go out and talk to the five elements! This is what I do everyday. They have the real news about the shift that's going on. It's in our bodies. It's in the trees, the rocks, the grass, the atmosphere. It is about us being lifted up at a quantum level.
 - The old 13 Families are fading away, yet accountability is coming about. I'll cut to the chase: You cannot get away with insurrection and treason and go make another real estate deal and brush your soldiers off and go on. It just doesn't work.

TARA: And sexual misconduct as well.

R: Yeah! Rape and murder are war crimes on ANY planet, not just this one.

T: And this is all in the repertoire of the pages of Michael Cohen. President Trump's history.

R: Yes it is! When you're a lawyer like Michael Cohen, you've seen the underside of this story.

- Just go Google the name John Gotti, and that's enough! I pass the talking stick! Not sure where [else] to go!

T: That's how serious this is.

[Reading Rama's report] "I got a text message from the King of Swords.

- " 'Lord Rama,' he said to me. 'Former president Trump is in boiling hot water. There are a slew of lawsuits about to hit the news wires concerning real estate deals, the unpaid taxes, rape and murder charges, assault charges, as well as insurrection. "
- 'As we approach the spring equinox, place all these situations in the Circle of Support. Tonight is Maha ShivaRatri.' "

T: I wrote three words down that really felt close to me. Lisa Garr, the lady who does the Awareness shows [on Gaia.com] had on a guest who'd written something called All Dreams Matter. We're right there! That's where we are right now.

- If I could read this John Dean thing—?

R: Yeah, because John Dean was involved in nailing Nixon for the Watergate scandal, and at the time, that was huge!

T: This is from the HuffPost—"John Dean Warns Trump that Prosecutors are Closing In—Only a Matter of Days."

- I'm talking about timing! In the meantime, it's exactly 6 months to the day [today], that 9/11 shows up in this year 2021. A major historical landmark about the interfacing of NESARA and 9/11. Because the morning of 9/11, the Federal Reserve chairperson Alan Greenspan was supposed to announce NESARA as the law of the land.

R: Right!

T: That's really important. It kind of fades from the memory, how powerfully important a statement that is.

- It goes along with what Mother Sekhmet has been saying—that anyone, post-9/11 who has transitioned to the Other Side—as they choose, and that's a very big point—as they choose and they wish to come back, they can come back in their own bodies, perfectly healed with the consciousness to go with it, and aid us. As they so choose—they can do anything else they want [also].

[Reading news article]

John Dean, the White House counsel to President Richard M. Nixon who was once dubbed the "master manipulator" of the Watergate scandal, says he knows legal trouble and former President Donald Trump is in it deep.

T: This being the point of that data—six months—I think it's significant that on this particular day, Maha ShivRatri—the great night of Lord Shiva is also right here, this night!

[Reading article]

Tonight, March 11 is celebrated as the Great Night of Lord Shiva or Maha ShivRatri which carries within it the concepts of CREATION, UNION, TRANSMUTATION and KUNDALINI and THIRD EYE ACTIVATION CREATION/ COSMIC EGG:

T: And I think we can all do this with this "vaccination" stuff. Some with higher consciousness can do just fine. Others—they've reported a series of [post-shot] deaths over in Europe, with the Astra Zeneca shot. It happened today [again] . . . Lord Shiva took poison and transmuted it, though turned blue . . .

- This Great Night Of Shiva presents us with the opportunity to be cleared , cleansed and transmuted of all previous Traumas/ Karma/ Poison and to move into higher levels of integration and union between our divine masculine and divine feminine so that we move closer to knowing and embodying the Divine Truth or Divine Consciousness.

- You can get this at IsisChannelings.wordpress.com SEE BELOW

COR: So what do you feel is the real importance of this is right now, the night of union of Shiva and Shakti? What for you guys does it affect, in Earth energies?

T: Well, that's a funny thing you should ask, sister! It's the simple concept that the Divine male is the ability to give in service. That is what that is. The Divine Feminine is the ability to RECEIVE Love! And that's a very important piece that's coming in right now. The reason we got this masterful demonstration on the 6th of January, is that there was something not working right with this Feminine energy that day.

COR: I feel like we've so had forced upon us on this planet the extreme, unnatural imbalance of complete emphasis of masculinity and the left brain, that it kind of scares people and makes them feel uncomfortable to think of learning to be in receptive mode, and to think of using their nurturing or intuitive aspect.

- They read it as weak or ineffective—too inactive. But this is the other half of Life, isn't it?

T: Yes!

COR: And I feel like these energies are just so important and so powerful now, and so empowering. You and I—all of us—are going to have to learn from Square One how to do this. How to open up, how to receive, how to love and nurture, for no reason—without any left-brain reasoning at all!

- And I'm wondering if Omena is finding in her sessions that people are struggling with us. I know I had a session with her recently, and I'm not very good at receiving! I'm working on that!

VV: We can move on to that. I want to double back to what Rama is saying.

- Rama, in view of the timing of what is happening right now, as we think about Trump being in deep doo-doo, and this event happening tonight—how do you see the relevance of all this timing coming together, based upon what the Faction Three White Knights are communicating with you about?

R: With this Maha ShivaRatri energy—to tie it in with the other things going on—we are at the end of this old cycle, where the Truth has to come out about the old power structures that stole the energy from the goddess Shakti—Parvati.

- This happened, interestingly enough, at the time of Babylon—the Tower of Babel. And even maybe before that, when the creation of the races was happening in Atlantis, as the Annunaki, the Fallen Angels, were galvanating the story and putting the goddess in the back seat, and them taking the front seat.

- This had to do with the genetic manipulation that has gone on for 13,000 years plus.
- As I see it right now, there are so many things happening that are waking up the Divine Feminine in the masculine, where there is great healing going on. And like you said, Caroline, it is hard for men to come forward and have that feminine side come forward, and cry and speak about sensitive subjects.

- It has to do with the emasculation of the male at this time, and the manipulation of the energies with the false ideologies of false gods. And that's a big deal, because very soon now, we're going to find out that the religions on this planet were based on legends and stories and myths, where the Elohi that fell to Elohim—the Fallen Angels—played like the good guys, and they're not so good guys, and all this is coming out.

- That's sort of a round-about answer to your question, Vinayak, yet it has to do with what is going on with major stories that are not being discussed.

- How the 13 Families right now, their ultimate plan is to create a cybernetic android army with AI [artificial intelligence], and transhumanism.

- There's an article out there that Michael Salla put out on Exopolitics talking about how they are programming our soldiers, playing around with the super-soldier ideas, and creating situations where they want to confront ET enemies in the Middle East. ["Supersoldiers & Extraterrestrial Agreements: Interview with Elena Danaan on Death of Stephen Chua" at: <https://exopolitics.org/author/dr-michael-salla/>]

- This is what they're planning now, yet as I keep being told—the folks who are coming in through the stargates and the other portals across the planet—they have already said, "All we are saying, is give Peace a Chance!"

- Right now, I would say that something is going to pop with all these situations. And it has to do with the exposure of the Fallen Matrix, and the truth about what really has gone on since the morning of 9/11. And why Julian Assange is still sitting in jail, and Chelsea Manning can't really tell what she knows about [US involvement in] Iraq and Afghanistan.
 - And why Julian Assange is still sitting in jail, and Chelsea Manning can't really tell what she knows about [US involvement in] Iraq and Afghanistan.

T: She doesn't want to stop breathing.

R: That's right! This is a big, big story we don't have enough time to chat about. But it involves all those subjects. I hope I answered something!

VV: Thank you, Rama. We're going to double back to you as there's a lot more we could share with our listening audience.

Sonja is on Line 2. Sonja, are you with us?

Caller/So: I am! I am referring to what Tara had asked me to make reference to - this wonderful material from Marcus Cicero from the ancient Roman empire.

- He was a thinker. He was ahead of his time.
- And he lived from 106 BCE to 43 BCE. He was a lawyer and a statesman, and he was very active in resisting the dictatorship.
- He had many thoughts on God, on the commonwealth, many topics. He was an amazing philosopher, statesman and lawyer.

So this is what he wrote:

"Marcus Aurelius of the Roman Empire wrote this amazing wisdom . . . which refers to the cycles of the old power structures that have been in evidence." At the bottom it says, "Written in 43 BC. Valid even today."

So there's a list of 9—the structure of dominance:

1. The poor – work & work.
2. The rich – exploit the poor.
3. The soldier – protects both.
4. The taxpayer – pays for all three.
5. The banker – robs all four.
6. The lawyer – misleads all five.
7. The doctor – bills all six.
8. The goons – scare all seven.
9. The Politician – lives happily on account of all eight.

- In my interpretation, I would say the goons and the politicians are what form the corporation. And as soon as we go into NESARA, all of this structure is just going to fall apart. And this is what Greg Braden and Richard Wolfe refer to—the structure is the sickness. And this was all written about in BC.

- What I see with the energies coming in, especially the influence of the Divine Feminine—and the activation of the right-brain hemisphere, which is multidimensional, and allowing the males to wake up that feminine side of themselves, which would take all the aggressive dominant traits we've been under for thousands of years, accompanied by the new system, around the galaxy—we are being completely infused with all this photonic Light.
 - People are feeling the wobble—the wobble of the Earth. The energies coming in are magnificent. There's no way to stop all this change now. We just have to stay extremely centered and balanced, in order to bring all this about, and the Justice will come. SO this is what I wanted to share from Cicero—what a thinker!
- What I see also with the nurturing of the feminine—that reflects the way the government itself is going to be supporting the population in so far as basic principles. We have to have shelter, food, education—principles that Maitreya and the message of Wisdom shared, which is the end of struggle, where everybody has the right to live a life of full potential. That's what I wanted to share!
- Can I ask a question of Omena?
 - Omena, can you explain to us the nature of the cords attached to our physical body. The silver cord—in the moment somebody transitions, they are disconnecting from the cord in the solar plexus. What is the cord that goes through the crown chakra. Are you aware of that one?

OMENA: The messages I am getting around the cord, is that they are for grounding us. They are for us to not lose touch with our higher spiritual self.

- That's the one that is attached to the crown, because that's where the soul enters the body and where the soul leaves the body.
- The problem with the cords over times, is that people have attached all other things to them. It's a misuse of energy. We don't have to cut the cords, but we have to keep the cords pure in our thoughts. They really are spiritual connections that we have to the higher realms, where our Twin Flame is. I hope that helps!

SONJA: When the soul detaches from the physical body, it is the silver cord that detaches, and from what I've read from the old wisdom teachings, it takes three days to completely retract. So the cremation of bodies before that time—I don't know how that affects the being. But it will disconnect completely, right, after a period of time?

OMENA: The disconnection from the body can be instant. It depends on how advanced the soul is. Let's say you're a master soul. You're going to pick and choose when you leave the Earth. You're going to disconnect from all Earthly things in a very clear way.

- The cremation is a wonderful way to purify everything of that soul. It purifies all the physical memories. It's sort of like the Violet Flame. It transcends all the energy attached to the physical body.
- When the soul leaves, it goes through a graduation process—again, depending on how advanced the soul is.
- If you're an infant soul you're going to go to a different place than if you're an adolescent soul, or an adult soul or a master soul, or an Ascending soul.
- The gold cords and the silver cords attach to the beings that help us in the Transition. [Gets message from guides] They're saying, "Don't worry about the cords! Worry about the growth! Be aware of the growth."
 - The cords aren't going anywhere. They're there to help us be aware not to misuse the energy. When we misuse the energy, it weakens the cords, and its attachment to us in the lower realm.

VV: I want to get back on topic if we can. Thank you for your question! Caroline, you were asking a question of Omena before—?

COR: Yes, thank you, Vinayak. I'm just looking at this huge shift we're going through on this planet, where we're moving from this extreme predominance of masculine thought—and I feel it's affecting women as well as men. For instance, as modern women, we've been taught to get an education and get as impressive a job as possible, and be tough and be strong. And all of our feminine aspect has gotten tunneled under to a good degree.

- Not all of it—I know a lot of women who are brilliantly nurturing and receptive, and they're just astoundingly mature, wise presences in the community, and they have a lot of powerful intuitive wisdom. But you know—I was in my 20s in the Eighties, and women were just so scolded if we were anything but tough and male. I'm wondering, what are you seeing in your sessions, Omena—that people are learning, or struggling to learn, to go into receptive mode, and to allow their nurturing and intuitive aspect?

OMENA: OK—when people come in front of me, usually I'm very aware of what their essence is, and their essence is either going to be either mental or Feminine. Sometimes that person is very balanced in both. Let's say they are of a totally mental essence, because that's what they are. They process everything through their mental bodies, so it's difficult for them to get in touch with their feeling body.

- But when I explain it to them, it sort of opens up a door. Because most mental essence people are not open to Receiving.
- When I'm doing a session with them, I certainly ask if they are open to Receiving, because that's why I have them record everything. So they can listen to it later—they may be more open to receiving when there's nobody else around.
- You have to remember that this is a society that is not great at acknowledging either the mental or the feminine. When I get a feminine essence in the room, if it's in a male body, they totally deny their feminine side. Because again—this society says, "Men in this society have to be strong, in control, powerful"—the whole bit.
 - And you get women who mental essence, and they are very strong, and they get punished for that too! So it's very, very confusing. I find that by educating people about their soul essence—that comes true—to embrace it, and that we're here to learn. I'm a strong mental essence, and I'm a strong feminine essence too, but then I'm an old soul.
 - So it's OK to have all of them—you're going to be strong when you need to be, and neutral when you need to be.
- So I do get a lot of that. But by educating them, hopefully it opens the door, and I think it does. Because the feedback they give—when they come back for a tune up, it could be two years later. But it definitely improves their life because it changes their view of who they are. It gives them a choice.

VV: Thank you, Omena. I think it's important at this point to acknowledge that we are androgynous beings. That we are balanced with both the masculine and the feminine. And I think that part of why this particular listening audience is here, is to bring that balance into the grounding of the third dimension. Does that fit with what you're talking about, Omena?

OMENA: I think it definitely does on another level, however when we're dealing with people on the third dimension, and people in the listening audience—some are advanced, some are learning.

- I think the more they understand—not everyone understand what it means to be balanced mentally, emotionally, physically, and spiritually. You have to deal with family culture, you have to deal with society's culture, with the ethnic culture. And they all come with different values and beliefs of what a woman should be and what a man should.

- I remember when I was little, growing up in Ireland, where women, after they had a baby, had to go into the church with a scarf on their head, to be cleansed! What is the message we were getting from all the mental essence, about the feminine essence giving birth? None of them would be there without!
 - It's the same thing with sex—everybody's addicted to it, but nobody is willing to admit it, and everybody misuses the energy. Because the sexual energy is the highest on Earth. If we don't misuse it, it's a wonderful thing. But the misuse of it—
- It's not a bad or good thing. It's a misuse of energy. It's the very same thing as the misuse by the mental essence of the feminine essence. So if people understand that, it builds their awareness, and then they can claim and be who they are, and delight in it! Have fun with it, and be open to it!

PENNY: My comment is because of something that Caroline Oceana Ryan said, about being confused in the mid-Eighties. Well, in the late Sixties, I was really confused when I started teaching, then started working for the City. On the one hand, I was considered too masculine. And then the courses we took—I had a friend who had done a master's and she was coaching me on things—I've had some clarity in these last few minutes, on it. Because what she was advising to do in terms of dressing and the way I spoke, was aimed at getting my point across, but not being too much like a man. Then later on, working in the city, I was told I had too much masculine.

- So I've been confused all my life. And you've talked about being in this group where you can lead with your heart. That's who I always was, but it's gotten lost and kicked around over the last so many years.

- I've finally gotten some clarity on it—how women are received in the so-called masculine working world, and the toxicity of what we lived in. I could name time after time where what I did was belittled, ignored, or just pooh-poohed.
- One gal and I had taken all the courses in facilities programming and planning, and we had to go to yet one more seminar at lunchtime, and we looked at each other, and she said, "You know, we could be up there giving that seminar," and I said, "Yeah!" And we just sat there and listened, and ugh! Some of that stuff is hard to get over!

VV: I don't think it's by accident that we're having this discussion tonight, because it is the night of the Maha ShivaRatri energies, and the coming together of the masculine and feminine.

- But I wanted to double back and pick up Rama and Tara's comments. And again, I think it's important that we ground this in the significance of how this is happening in this Now moment.
 - And how this is progressing. The awarenesses as well as the revelation of Full Disclosure and NESARA, and so one I feel strongly that our listening audience is tuned into us to hear something of that information. So I pass the stalking stick Caroline if you wanted to comment on that.

COR: Well, I'm feeling like NESARA, coming so close now, I feel, and I don't say that lightly, because I know people have been waiting so long for this.

- I feel like what humanity is travelling right now, accepting that a balance has to occur in our spirits and psyches and even how we carry ourselves, and in our principles and priorities.
 - We're facing this—we're having to face it. I feel like Mr Trump was the last gasp of this very unthinking thuggery, this bullying, very misplaced and very warped masculinity. And that even when men try to do that now, it falls flat. They can't seem to carry it out like they used to. It looks to me like they don't even believe it anymore. And these energies coming in now are requiring us to be balanced.

- And how else is NESARA and Full Disclosure going to happen, except that we learn to speak and think and live from the high heart. I know Rama and Tara talk a lot about the high heart. If we're not there, how are we going to communicate with these beautifully evolved beings who are already there? We look like idiot children to most of these civilizations, I'm sure of that. But we don't have to stay where we've been for thousands of years.
- That's how I tie all that together, and I appreciate Omena's insights. And Amen! to what Penny said as well. I still kind of smart at times—it's something I still have to work through, in dealing with memories of how I was treated as a young working woman, and it wasn't fun.
 - Penny arriving a few years before me—your crowd really paved the way, as much as it was paved, and we're very thankful for that, but it was still a rough ride, and I was never so happy as the day I decided to become completely self-employed and step out of the hierarchy. Which is the essence of male dominance.
- If we have a balanced spirit and psyche and society on this planet, in Earth culture, we won't have hierarchies, except that there will be Councils of Elders, but that will be different. That won't be an oppressive overhanging structure, and wow—we will treat each other so differently on this planet! Thank you, Vinayak. Pass the talking stick back to you.

VINAYAK: Thank you, Caroline. Micah—you said you had a comment about Mr Keshe?

MICAH: Greetings! Yeah, I was listening to the Knowledge Seeker's Workshop a week ago.

- One of the little comments from Mr Keshe came out very strongly to me, so I want to share it with you—this is in Mr Keshe's words:

"I have found Peace, and one of my biggest dreams has come true. My granddaughter has just been born." He's looked at his granddaughter's picture maybe 100 times in the few days since she was born. He sees the beauty of life on this planet. He sees that his granddaughter with the technology he has brought to the world will live a totally different life, peaceful life—a life where she will love to see the universe and then go to see New York to see a few buildings—you should go to New York!

- And then from there she goes to travel across the universe! Hunger will be nothing for her, in a way she will see the beauty of the world and the universe through her - the eye of her soul.
 - The word "war" will not exist in her time. Friendship, Love, Caring—availability and what we call Abundant-ness.

"This is Not a dream that I have created for my granddaughter. And I make sure, by the time when she reaches my age, she will say that "My grandfather was telling me this time would come, that he created for me to enjoy and the rest of us. We got to find Peace within ourselves, and not to be touched and manipulated by the others."

- So that's one of his messages. There's also one other thing I'd like to share, in regards to the Universal Body Enhancement Spaceship Units.
 - The most recent ad on last night's Knowledge Seeker's Workshop explained it: "The new Universal Body Enhancement Spaceship Unit uses collective plasma field technology for the changing and enhancing of the environment in the body of the man.
 - This new plasma enhancement changes the environment of the body, and allows it to return to its natural balanced energetic condition, as it was in the womb of the mother, allowing every cell in the body of the man to find its natural, original field strength balance.

- The unique shape and field distribution within this new spaceship technology replicates the inner structure of the Universe, and replicates the balanced fields from which the man was created from the point of conception in the womb of the mother.
- Not only receiving balance in the physical, but also in the emotional sense. For the very first time in the history of man, a system has been developed and delivered which not only enhances the physical boy of the man, but also the emotional part of the user of the system.
- Hence reducing and eliminating many of the problems that could not be solved in the world of science, to bring the body to near perfection, as at the time of birth.

The journey from space to spaceship technology has begun!

VV: Thank you, Micah. I appreciate your contribution tonight.

- So I want to double back to Rama & Tara, and see if they have enlightening words from the Faction Three White Knights on the significance of what we're talking about.
- Throughout time, throughout many cultures, they have had many names for those people who did possess those balanced energies. For example, the Native Americans revered the people who were called the Bird Ash. If you're interested in knowing about that, you can look that up. That's just one cultural example. I think there are many, many more. I think it's significant that we're on the eve of this significant time.
- So I pass the talking stick back to you, Rama and Tara!

R: What I can say, is that there is this Rainbow Prophecy that has been spoken about, from the Cree Nation, and the Hopi Nation, the Dene, which are the Navajo, which speak of the Rainbow Warriors showing up at this time, in connection with Sat Yuga, and how this embraces every culture on the planet.

- In context of this, I bring up the statement that Prince William recently put out in the last 24 or 48 hours, saying the royal family is not racist. Yet I gotta say, they are very upset that Harry married Meghan, and it's a big deal.
 - Because we've got to get over this, as we are to meet our galactic brothers and sisters, who like so many folks say—if we look a little different, it's not about the appearance. It's what in the heart.
- I can just say right now, what this Rainbow Prophecy is speaking about—the Rainbow Crystal children are already here, speaking Truth to power. What I mean by that is, it doesn't matter, the appearance. It's about the message from your soul.

T: Someone like the Squad—AOC—Micah, you're 35. You're the bridge between the Rainbow Crystal children and the millennials. It's a bridge.

- I don't know how old Katie Porter is, but I don't think she's much older than 35. There's a place where that new energy is flowing in. Ilhan Omar—I don't know how old she is, but she carries the ability to bridge those two generations strongly.

The Warriors of the Rainbow Prophecy was updated in April 22, 2014. It's by John Black. It's from <https://www.ancient-origins.net/myths-legends/warriors-rainbow-prophecy-001577>
I think this is just exactly what time it is—this is such a powerful thing!

[Reading] "One day... there would come a time, when the Earth being ravaged and polluted, the forests being destroyed, the birds would fall from the air, the waters would be blackened, the fish being poisoned in the streams, and the trees would no longer be, mankind as we would know it would all but cease to exist . . ."

See Below

T: Fukushima was on 3/11—today! 10 years ago. I forgot about that!

COR: I just wanted to get your opinion and Rama's input as well—do you feel like—I'm looking at this prophecy and I'm thinking, "I don't know—are we there? Are we really at a point where this kind of balance can happen on this Earth?"

- And I'm wondering what Rama's people have to say about it. Because I feel like we're hundreds of years away from it still. Unless we all really shift in a big, significant way really quickly. Let me know what you think about that. I just want to ground this in our discussion, because I think it's vital that we talk about it.

R: On the levels that I'm hearing from, and seeing the energies coming in, where I read scientific articles connected with these quantum physicists, and the increased activities of the planet—and by the way, Mt Popo in Mexico just went off again, and there were ships seen around Mt Popo in the last 24-38 hours—

- All of these signs have to do with the Rainbow Prophecy, or the Great White Pahana, or another name is Yesu.
- I can say that the things not being discussed in mainstream media or even alternative media is the fluctuations and changes in our physical Sun and the rest of the planet.
 - This is a huge deal. It's affecting our physical bodies, our planet, atmosphere, what we go through day to day with the energies, whether we're in our bodies or not so much in our bodies. Those energies affect how we sense things.
 - I'm being told this is coming to pass right effing now, not hundreds of years down the road!

T: And the dollar is gone. The old paradigm does not work anymore, as Professor Richard Wolfe speaks every week—he spoke quite wisely today on Thom Hartmann.

- They say you can't teach an old dog new tricks, and if it ain't broken, don't fix it. But if it is broken, it's making way for something new. It's being said all over the different financial worlds: It's broken!

R: How can this system that keeps putting money in Jeff Bezos's pocket, and Warren Buffet's—how that help us? It is not!

T: They're focusing on an android culture, where they eliminate the human spirit. That's what they're challenged with. Love always wins. That means LOVE always wins, not the rest of it. And January 6th is not a demonstration of what we're speaking of at the moment. But it's the epitome of it, if you thought that way—there's some people who are carrying that in Congress now. Marjorie Taylor Green.

R: That is a very dangerous person now on the planet.

T: There's a couple of others in Congress. So there is intervention, because they will not—I don't know—I'm hearing that Saint Germain has something to say through Omena!

- Caroline was feeling that this shift is hundreds of years from now, and the impetus that came through Rama—as we keep hearing from people who are part of the Ashtar Command and also in strategic positions of power on the ground, are saying, it's over Now!
- The old paradigm's over now. The financial system is broken, and it's time for NESARA, and that's what NESARA has been planned for, forever—where debt forgiveness happens across the planet. There are people who cannot—interesting that the pandemic was officially announced in the US on 3/11 in the US too. This is not a mistake.

OMENA: OK, I got Saint Germain here, and he has a sense of humor!

- He's saying, "It's very typical of us inhabitants on Earth, to want it all to happen right away, and to happen Now. It doesn't move that fast, even with the paradigm shift. "It's all on a higher level and has to come down to the lower level, in order to fully change the energy It's definitely going to change, but not instantly. And NESARA is not going to happen instantly."
- With the Ashtar beings on the Earth, they still go on the Golden Rule to not interfere with human life, unless it's Absolutely necessary. That's only when there's a great catastrophe that might hit.
 - They definitely feed the energy into human beings, and the paradigm shift is very important, to enact all these changes coming down the world. That they are gradual. And also, there's such a value to money—emphasizing money—and power."
 - That in order to be able to transmute all that into a more agreeable energy amongst human beings, that that's a time, in our time, "a process that has to grow into consciousness. It has begun, but not to the rate you're talking about."
- "We don't do Time in the same sequence that Earth beings do. Some planets do, some don't. But they don't." But that they're working on speeding it up. Interesting—"If we speed it up, it will burn out so many people! They can't take that chance."
- He wants to know if you have any more questions.

T: Well, what I heard, what I gathered from Saint German, is that the ability to be patient is pre-eminent right now, and the ability to BE it is preeminent right now.

- At the same time, those things that you and I expect that might be uniquely on behalf of each one—have the opportunity at every moment to come together. Do not preempt it, and do not forestall it. Find that point of Light within the mind of God, and BE it!

OMENA: And trust it!

T: And trust it! And stay in that heart of Christ every moment, no matter what is going on!

O: Yes, because money is energy, Life is energy, the God connection is energy. All of it is subject to misuse. If people think that human nature—that all of it is going to be forgiven, they will misuse a lot of energy in terms of money, and it doesn't work that fast.

- If I charge up $30,000 on a charge card and not pay back any of it, I'm going to have people banging on my door looking for money I don't have. That's misusing the money energy. That's against natural law, and the natural law has a lot to do with NESARA. The natural law of Cause and Effect! I pass the talking stick!

T: So no appointments and no disappointments, and Yes we can!

VV: If we are not willing to do the work on ourselves to lift our consciousness, it's not going to happen. It's because we have a value on the wrong thing. We need to put the value where the value is. Which is valuing each other and valuing the life that we have, and bettering the life for everyone.

- It feels to me like it comes back around to the energetic field of consciousness we are sharing and giving to one another, which is all about Love and respect and understanding. It goes back to what we were talking about earlier, which is that we have to come to a place of equanimity where we're not looking at color or shape. We're not looking at sizes. The judgment has to stop with in each and everyone of us.
- I'm saying that to myself in particular, so I notice all the time the kind of judgments that come up for me. Pass the talking stick!

COR: I love that as soon as Tara mentioned Saint Germain, I thought, That's a good point—what is he saying? I also got that same comment that Omena did, that they are transmitting energies to human beings to assist us in shifting to a level where everything that we're envisioning now is possible now.

- He says it's a sort of loophole. So they're not exactly intervening in a way that breaks the Prime Directive or Golden Rule, and he will say things like: "We don't see time like you do."
- I'm very glad we're receiving help even though we think, "They can't do anything. They can't speed this along." What they can do is step out of Time enough that we're speeding it along without realizing it. And anyone open to these transmissions, we're receiving it, and we're anchoring NESARA energies.
- Aspects of NESARA—the spirit, the essence of it, have already started to manifest in our lives. I see it everyday, and it's a very beautiful thing. Thank you, Vinayak. I pass the talking stick back to you. Very interesting discussion!

VV: Any other contribution tonight?

T: I was going to say—I looked up where we're paralleling what's going on politically on the ground, and what's going on with the dark side's use of the republican party to disengage from Love and Peace and harmony as much as possible in every possible way.

- In that sense, it's not about a particular being. We know that Joe Biden is not a particular being, and that there is intervention in that wire. There are catastrophic issues going on, of levels of truth that have been breached to the whole world.
- Saint Germain was saying, "We're intervening to help that speed up, as it's possible." And it becomes more possible as we work with these energies.
- I have to go back, because it was so strong when Saint Germain came through a couple of weeks ago from Caroline in her update [A Message to Lightworkers - February 26, 2021], and made it very clear that the galactic ones and the Ascended Masters are intervening.
 - And that in order to level the playing field, in the sense that if you've got the power and the money, you've got the talking stick.
- As Omena was saying, the emphasis on money has superseded any declaration of Peace, and that appears to be not working so well, in the sense that the population do not want this — there's a gratitude forming, I'm sure.

- They're saying people will start receiving their stimulus checks this weekend, and that Biden will sign off on that, and Merrick Garland has been confirmed and made his first speech. We have to be tough on that, as he's very easy with the cops. He wants to give them slack, and they've got way more slack than they should have been given in the first place—explaining away the murder of George Floyd.
- "Two whistleblowers have claimed a Justice Dept official improperly promoted an employee in the final days of Trump's term"—nearly led to a mass resignation at the top of the agency . . .
- "Then we have Lady Nada saying it's not going to open—it has officially opened—the inappropriate invasion and occupation of Palestine. Netanyahu is in the hot seat as the head of the entire Kazarian mafia of the world, no matter what name you give it. He represents that Finger of Sauron.
- So I say that we Blaze the Violet Fire, and "Yes, we can!" And I pass the talking stick.

VV: For those who might be interested in more information about Saint Germain—isn't there a book about the life of Saint Germain?

T: It's called, The Secret Destiny of America by Manly Palmer Hall. He was the reincarnation of Madame Blavatsky who created the teachings of the theosophical society. The teachings of Saint Germain are embodied in that.

VV: Rama, did we hear from all the people you spoke with this week?

R: Just that things are moving along with Full Disclosure and intervention on a massive level!

T: Expect the unexpected in all things! Expect that from yourself too. We have the capability to see the world we want to see. Yes you can!

VV: Blaze the Violet Fire. I want to remind everybody about Ho'oponopono.

Thank you for listening. We appreciate all of you. We love you!

R: there are many wonderful things going on, as well as the old shards of the matrix falling apart - more and more revelation are coming out about the depth of the story and its dissolution

The Warriors of the Rainbow Prophecy

“One day... there would come a time, when the earth being ravaged and polluted, the forests being destroyed, the birds would fall from the air, the waters would be blackened, the fish being poisoned in the streams, and the trees would no longer be, mankind as we would know it would all but cease to exist”

This is how the 'Rainbow prophecy' begins, as retold by a woman of the Cree Indian nation of America over a century ago.

The Cree are one of the largest groups of the First Nations Native Americans in North America. There are over 135 bands of Cree living in Canada, with a total population of approximately 200,000 today.

The Rainbow prophecy, as it has come to be known, refers to the keepers of the legends, rituals, and other myths that will be needed when the time comes to restore the health on Earth. It is believed that these legendary beings will return on a day of awakening, when all people will unite and create a new world of justice, peace and freedom, and they will be named the 'Warriors of the Rainbow'. They will reteach the values and the knowledge that has been lost in time, demonstrating how to have wisdom and extra-perception, and how unity, harmony and love is the only way forward.

The rainbow reference relates to the different colours of the original people:

At the beginning of this cycle of time, long ago, the Great Spirit came down and He made an appearance and He gathered the peoples of this earth together, they say on an island which is now beneath the water, and He said to the human beings, "I'm going to send you to four directions and over time I'm going to change you to four colours, but I'm going to give you some teachings and you will call these the Original Teachings and when you come back together with each other you will share these so that you can live and have peace on earth, and a great civilization will come about.

Prophecy as told by Lee Brown of the Salish Tribe at the 1986 Continental Indigenous Council, Alaska.

A particularly interesting part of the prophecy relates to the choosing of leaders. According to the story, a leader will not be the one that talks the loudest, boasts of successes, or has the support of the elite. Leaders will be those whose actions speak the loudest, the ones that have demonstrated wisdom and courage and have proven that they work for the benefit of all. Isn't this how things should be?

The Rainbow has always held special significance among the different Native American Indian Nations. It is connected to the Spirit (Supreme God/Creator) in all things. Apart from the Cree prophecy there are many prophecies and stories from the Hopi, the Zuni and the Cherokee related to the rainbow warriors.

There will come a day when people of all races, colors, and creeds will put aside their differences. They will come together in love, joining hands in unification, to heal the Earth and all Her children. They will move over the Earth like a great Whirling Rainbow, bringing peace, understanding and healing everywhere they go. Many creatures thought to be extinct or mythical will resurface at this time; the great trees that perished will return almost overnight. All living things will flourish, drawing sustenance from the breast of our Mother, the Earth.

The great spiritual Teachers who walked the Earth and taught the basics of the truths of the Whirling Rainbow Prophecy will return and walk amongst us once more, sharing their power and understanding with all. We will learn how to see and hear in a sacred manner. Men and women will be equals in the way Creator intended them to be; all children will be safe anywhere they want to go. Elders will be respected and valued for their contributions to life. Their wisdom will be sought out. The whole Human race will be called The People and there will be no more war, sickness or hunger forever.

Navajo-Hopi Prophecy of the Whirling Rainbow

In the time of the Seventh Fire, a New People would emerge. They would retrace their steps to find the wisdom that was left by the side of the trail long ago. Their steps would take them to the elders, who they would ask to guide them on their journey. If the New People remain strong in their quest, the sacred drum will again sound its voice. There will be an awakening of the people, and the sacred fire will again be lit. At this time, the light-skinned race will be given a choice between two roads. One road is the road of greed and technology without wisdom or respect for life. This road represents a rush to destruction. The other road is spirituality, a slower path that includes respect for all living things. If we choose the spiritual path, we can light yet another fire, an Eight Fire, and begin an extended period of Peace and healthy growth.

Grandfather William Commanda, Circle of All Nations Prophecy of the Seven Fires of the Anishnabe, From Ancient Wampum Belt.

While Wikipedia would have people believe that the legend originates in a 1962 book titled 'Warriors of the Rainbow' by William Willoya and Vinson Brown, the reality is that the prophecy is ancient, passed down as oral history over many generations. Brown, himself, admitted that his research came from the Hopi prophecies, and the book has been criticised as an attempt to evangelize with the Native American community by relating the prophecy of the Rainbow Warriors to the Second Coming of Christ.

References to a new Era, a Golden Age characterised by harmony, stability and prosperity, do not just belong to the Native Americans, but can be found in myths and legends from all over the world. It is known as Chryson Genos in Greek mythology, the Kali yuga in Vedic and Hindu culture, and gullaldr in Norse mythology. One aspect that is common among many legends of the Golden era is the return of beings or gods that will aid in the restoration of the Earth.

In classical Greek mythology the Golden Age was presided over by the leading Titan Cronus. In some version of the myth Astraea, also ruled. She lived with men until the end of the Silver Age, but in the Bronze Age, when men became violent and greedy, fled to the stars, where she appears as the constellation Virgo, holding the scales of Justice, or Libra.

Whether these prophecies are true or not, much of what is spoken about – the era of greed and violence – is a reality throughout much of the world today. Corruption, greed, poverty, consumerism, power to the few, and injustice are predominant characteristics of our civilization accompanied by a great technological advancement that has become a weapon for mass destruction and a tool for suppressing resistance. Whether beings from the past will interfere or not, one thing is for sure, life cannot continue in this way forever.

MahaShivratri: Great Night of Shiva, March 11

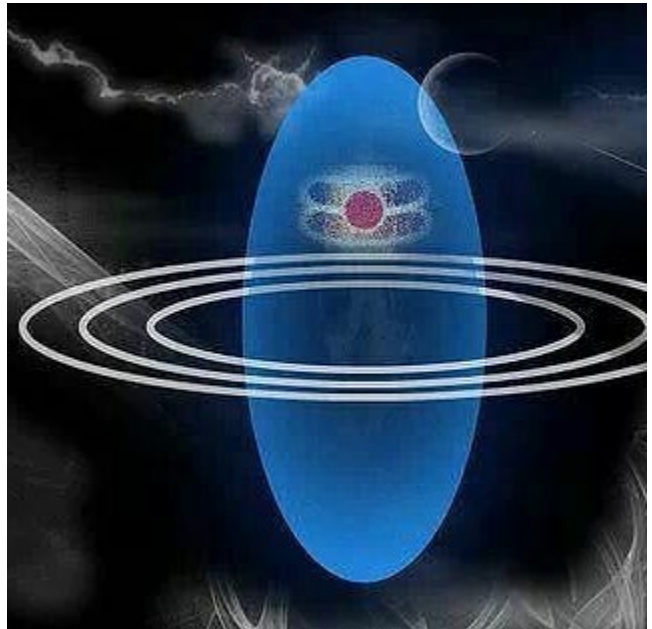

<https://isischannelings.wordpress.com/2021/03/11/mahashivratri-great-night-of-shiva-march-11/>

MahaShivratri: Great Night of Shiva, March 11

Tonight, March 11 is celebrated as the Great Night of Lord Shiva or Mahashivratri which carries within it the concepts of CREATION, UNION, TRANSMUTATION and KUNDALINI and THIRD EYE ACTIVATION

CREATION/ COSMIC EGG:

It is on this night that the JyotirLinga First appeared - ie A great Pillar (linga) of Light (joyti) with no beginning or end - appeared which pierced the Three Worlds as a brilliant shaft of light. Lord Shiva stepped out of this Gigantic Linga/ pillar of Light to the Primordial sound of OM...The Sound of Creation!!!

The Linga is hence the emblematic form of Shiva, a representation of the divine without body, the origin of all things. According to ancient Sanskrit text, the original form of the lingam was egg-shaped and represented the Cosmic Egg or The Universe itself !!!

And thus Lord Shiva is considered to be the Aadi (beginning) and Antha (end) and all that lies between - ie He is The Creator, The Preserver and The Destroyer, and it is on this Night of Maha Shivratri that he performs the Cosmic Dance/ Tandav of Creation/ Destruction known as Ananda Tandav/ RudraTandav.

UNION OF DIVINE MASCULINE AND DIVINE FEMININE:

It is also believed to be the night of Union of Shiva and Parvati - ie Union of Active energy / Shakti/ Devi / Goddess with Divine Consciousness / Shiva/ God - for Shiva is also Known as Ardhnareshwar or Half Man, Half Woman - ie the Complete Being with balance, masculine and Feminine energies in Union / ShivaShakti. That is why a shivling is often depicted as a Lingam representative of the phallus inserted onto a base representative of the Yoni.

TRANSMUTATION:

According to Puranas /ancient Sanskrit Text, in the process of the churning of the Ocean / Samudra manthan / Milky Way to obtain the Nectar of Immortality/ Amrit, a lethal Poison/ Halahala was released that could destroy all of creation. It is Lord Shiva who consumed and transmuted the Poison in his throat to save the three worlds, as a result of which his throat turned blue and hence he is called Neelkanth/ One with the Blue Throat.

ACTIVATION OF KUNDALINI + THIRD EYE

Hence This Great Night Of Shiva presents us with the opportunity to be cleared, cleansed and transmuted of all previous Traumas/ Karma/ Poison, and to move into higher levels of integration and union between our divine masculine and divine feminine so that we move closer to knowing and embodying the Divine Truth or Divine Consciousness. For those on the spiritual path, it represents an unparalleled opportunity of Spiritual acceleration as, on this night, there is a natural upsurge of the Life Force Energies/ Kundalini Energies up the spine activating the Third eye (see video by Sadhguru of Isha Foundation in comments). Hence all Shiva devotees will observe this night as a Night of Wakefulness as they need to keep their spine upright and erect, thus making it a night of Mindfulness and Awakening!!
