Now we have to think about the future without copying the past. We have to take a broader perspective, not only concerning ourselves with my nation, my community and so on. We have to think about the whole of humanity; the oneness of all human beings.

King of Swords

Rama: I received a text message from the King of Swords at 11:54 am this morning. He said to me, "Lord Rama, it's 'Heads up!' As we go through the eclipse window, Captain Ashtar may be addressing the people of Earth. The Dark Side are doing all they can to distract: our mission is to be 'Instruments of Peace'. I will repeat Ben Franklin's word here: "a Democratic Republic – if you can keep it".

"I may be showing up in Albuquerque in the next little while. I will let you know. See you in the Light of the Most Radiant One! Sat Nam! Namaste! Blaze the Violet Fire!"

Tom the Cat, Sweet Angelique the Cat

Rama: I received a text message at 11:48 this morning from Tom the Cat and Sweet Angelique the Cat. They said to me, "Lord Rama, we were over New Zealand near a major portal. From there, we sent you a picture of the centre of the Milky Way Galaxy, rising over New Zealand in the last 24 hours. It is awesome to behold !!!

"Meanwhile there is an upcoming full moon / blood Moon Lunar Eclipse that will be seen over the United States at 6:02 am EST tomorrow morning. This is a very intense full moon.

"The Dark Side continues to disrupt the incoming energies of Love and Light. Remember to stay in your High Heart: WE HAVE WON! Sat Nam! Namaste! Blaze the Violet Fire!"

The Nameless Ones

Rama: I received a text message from The Nameless Ones at 11:31 am this morning. They said to me, "We sent you a YouTube of a 9 minute Mantra from Ancient Tibetan Tantra Masters who chant this mantra at the time of major eclipses, equinoxes, and solstices. And it is said that this mantra can mitigate earthquakes. We can tell you, Lord Rama, the Galactic Fleets are here; we have been in contact with many Galactic Ambassadors. We are very near the time when all the world will know this.

"The date of this present eclipse won't happen again until the 23rd century!

"The time is NOW to come together as one unified race of people, the Rainbow Children of Light. The Rainbow Prophecy is coming to pass NOW. Stay in the High Heart! Sat Nam! Namaste! Om Mani Padme Hum. Blaze the Violet Fire."

Prayer of Kuntuzangpo is a famous Dzogchen aspiration prayer from the Gongpa Zangthal. It is to be recited especially during a solar or lunar eclipse, an earthquake or at the solstices. This aspiration prayer comes from the Dzogchen tantra called the Tantra of the Great Perfection which Shows the Penetrating Wisdom of Samantabhadra. In Tibetan, the short title of this tantra is Gongpa Zangthal Gyi Gyü, which means "The Tantra of Penetrating Wisdom" or "The Tantra of Transcendent Intention."

Rama: I received a text message from Natasha at 11:45 am, late this morning. She said to me, "Lord Rama, I went to Stonehenge in a shuttle craft at sunrise. "Meanwhile Russia may be pulling out of Kherson; there are rumours of talks going on – maybe a cease fire in the works. Put all of this in the Circle of Support. Sat Nam! Namaste! Blaze the Violet Fire!"

Thursday

Grandmother Beatrice, Madam Rosa

Rama: I went to the store - KeshitheZuniConnection – in Santa Fe at 11:30 am this morning. There, I met with Grandmother Beatrice, 86 years wise, and Madam Rosa, nearly 100 years of age. Both of these wise elders walk 5 miles a day, EVERY DAY!

They said to me, "Lord Rama, the Rainbow Crystal children are here, along with the Diamond Crystal children who are the youngest of the tribes from birth to the age of 7. We also have Generation Z coming of age, and voting in this last election. Many of these children are Native American, Hispanic and Black, and other children of colour, as well as fair-skinned children.

"This is the generational changing of the guard. They are not so much interested in money for money's sake; they are interested in human rights for all, as well as freedom for all. At this time, as it has been prophesied, in the years following 2012 the ancient scrolls spoke of the coming of these Rainbow Crystal children."

At this point, Grandmother Beatrice said, "Lord Quetzaqueotal and other kachinas, as fellow master travellers on this path to ascension with all of us, are physically showing up here as our friends and spiritual guides on our way home to the Heart of All That Is. AND to a declaration of World Peace and the END OF ALL WAR!

"The dark side has lost! As we go into this 11:11 portal tomorrow, send love and peace the world over. Sat Nam! Namaste! Blaze the Violet Fire!. All we are saying is 'give peace a chance.'"

Leaders Of Ascension: The Lyran Family

At this moment and time, several Galactic species are gathered here to help and guide humanity in its ascension process. These beings are communicating and sharing essential information for this process with many members of the Family of Light.

And, as in every family, it makes sense that every species tries to contact the Starseeds who belong to their family. This brings us to the following question: Have you ever wondered which kind of Starseed you are?

In my case, I am a Lyran and, among my family from the stars, you could find some of the oldest and wisest souls in our whole galaxy, as Lyrans are the founding race.

Hopefully, if you are a Lyrian Starseed, your heart will resonate with the information in this text, and you'll start to identify with some traits of our family.

First of all, you have to know that Lyrans played a unique part in the creation of humanity. They were the ones that offered the element of fire to Planet Earth. Also, many souls from Atlantis were of Lyrian Ancestry. They taught about the use of frequency and resonance to the ancient civilizations of Atlantis and Lemuria.

But where did the Lyrans come from? Where is their original home?

Lyra is the birthplace of the Lyran family. Well-known by being the first planet to have physical humanoid beings. If you look at our current Universe map, you will find that it is a small constellation that you'll quickly identify it because of the brightest star in this constellation: Vega.

Now, if you're looking at those stars and you try to picture your family from the stars, you must know that they are fourth-dimensional beings living in their constellation. However, from Earth's 3D perspective, they are a bit different from what they would appear if they were on their home ground.

Maybe you've heard about the feline features of the Lyrans. Their nose and eyes would remind you of those of a lion or an African cat. Also, although they look like humans, their skin and eye colors can change depending on their home star.

If you are a Lyran Starseed, you'll start to notice your family traits after your awakening; however, some signs can appear, mainly when you are exposed to intense experiences. This usually happens to all Starseeds, but it is especially true for Lyran Starseeds because of their strong physical grounding and manifesting power.

Lyran Starseeds are commonly identified as being highly spontaneous and show their genuinely high energy all the time. Because of their high energy, they want to try many things, explore many places, and work intensely on their personal projects.

But as they have so much energy, they tend to work a lot without even noticing, and sometimes they end up feeling exhausted. That's why they like to explore so many things. After the exhaustion, they tend to put their focus on new things.

Lyran Starseeds are friendly and outstanding leaders. But they prefer to work and be surrounded by people of their own Galactic Family. They are usually more reserved when they are in the presence of members of other families. That's why they're very good at receiving personal information and having strong perceptions about others.

They like to avoid unnecessary conflict, so they can reserve their energy for what matters to them, their mission. Their tireless determination to see every project to completion sets a great example that others are inspired to follow.

Of all the Lyran Starseed traits, this is the one that makes them the most unique: They are very grounded and live in the present. As a result, they excel in physical activities, such as sports. They tend to be highly skilled with their hands and often make expert tradespeople.

They enjoy good health and are in tune with their bodies, meaning they know immediately when their health is out of its natural well-being. They are also very sensitive and can identify an ill person if they are close by.

However, when they neglect their health, they experience worse symptoms than most due to their intense and very grounded life experience.

If you are a Lyran Starseed, you must know that you have limitless spiritual potential. This will be a clear advantage for your journey of ascension.

Finally, the last Lyran Starseed trait is their keen sense of justice. Paired with their natural leadership abilities, this will make a Lyran give everything they have to fight for social justice.

This is why Lyran Starseeds are vital to the ascension movement. They are destined to lead humankind to its bright future and Earth to its Golden Age.

For those whose hearts resonated and vibrated with this information, I welcome you to our magnificent family of light.

And remember,
You are not alone.

We love you dearly.
We are here with you.
We are your family of Light.
We are the Galactic Federation.

A'HO

Divine blessings to all,
Aurora Ray

The timeline has changed. Your Path is like a straight beam of Light that is passing through half circles. Instead of going through waves, you are now going straight forward on an accelerated timeline. A lot of things that you were supposed to pass through are either behind or beside your main Path. You did it! You are on it. You are supported by it. You are it. You are inside, outside and seeing everything from all sides. You are all over multidimensionality!

Hold on to your hats! This is where things get real exciting!

Hugs and love to all of you,
Grandma
