The Solstice is when the Sun is at its furthest distance from the Earth's equator – Either very far to the North or very far to the South of the equator. On December 21 each year, the Sun is at its Southernmost point from the equator – So this day is the Winter Solstice (shortest day / longest night) for those in the Northern Hemisphere, and it's the Summer Solstice (longest day / shortest night) for those in the Southern Hemisphere. December 21 is also the time when the Earth's North Pole is most extremely inclined away from the Sun, and the South Pole is most extremely inclined toward the Sun. This tilt of the Earth on its axis, in relation to the Sun, is what causes us to experience days & nights of changing length. June 21 each year is when the Sun is at its Northernmost point.

The ancient people honored the Winter Solstice in the construction of a great number of their temples and stone circles. The Sun on the Winter Solstice makes a divine alignment with the structures at Stonehenge (England), Newgrange (Ireland), Carnac (France), Chichen Itza (Mexico), Karnak Temple (Egypt), and other sites. In ancient times, the Winter Solstice was a time of great celebrations. Huge bonfires, or the Yule log, were lit to honor the return of the Sun. Homes were decorated with pine & pinecones. Feasting, singing, giving gifts, and dancing were all part of the celebrations – As well as dream practices. The Nordic traditions of Yuletide are the source of many of our modern-day celebrations of decorating a pine tree, giving gifts, and celebrating the Winter Solstice. These very ancient Earth-based traditions were of course adapted into today's Christian traditions. In some Northern cultures, traditions held that the Reindeer Mother was the one who flew up into the sky and brought back the sun. Interestingly, female reindeer keep their antlers in the winter, while the male reindeer lose their antlers.

The Return of the Sun God / Goddess: Also universally around the world, we find the mythology of the Return of the Sun Deity at the Solstice time. Our Sun is a fractal / mirror of the Great Central Sun, the creator or singularity that all of the galaxies spin around. Just as the Great Central Sun provides all of the energy for the stars & galaxies to thrive, our star (the Sun) provides all of the energy that powers every plant, animal, and biological / environmental process on our planet. We can find the Sun God or Goddess in almost every religion & spiritual tradition – The one who brings the light, and who is born or comes back to the people at Solstice time. Jesus, Mithra, Horus, Amaterasu, Aine, Apollo, Inti, Surya ... The list goes on!

Bright Solstice Blessings to You & Yours!

Bestselling author and researcher Freddy Silva reveals how ancient sacred sites and real crop circles contain an energy code that can be transmitted at a distance to heal organisms, including people — a concept found in resonance therapy and radionics.

Ancient temples and other sacred sites were designed to generate a unique resonant environment where the laws of nature are harnessed and amplified. This involved the strategic use of magnetism, sacred geometry, even potentized water. But what science is now discovering is that these unique places also retain a lasting energetic fingerprint that is capable of transferring vital, living codes to the people who interact with them.

Although we stopped building temples long ago, in a bizarre twist, the same effect has been discovered inside genuine crop circles. What's more, both crop circles and sacred sites are capable of transmitting a healing code to people, even when they are far away...

Hola New Paradigmers!

Yes, indeed, with the Sun and Mars in Sagittarius, it is time to expand our consciousness. With Mercury turning retrograde, it is time to rebel and revolt against old conditioning and patterning and hit the erase button on some of those memories. This is further assisted by the Sun squaring celestial Neptune and conjuncting the Galactic Center's Black Hole, which can be a vacuum cleaner for unneeded "old stuff." Even today's Sabian symbol speaks of lofty angelic realms we may now access.

It's all so lofty that you may find yourself tripping over your own two feet! We humans are a big link connecting the spirit and material/physical worlds. It's our challenge to stay equally anchored in both without getting sucked up into spirit or sinking into matter. Thank goodness Mercury is in earthy Capricorn trine to Jupiter, making this balance a tad easier.

I find it beautiful to have these aspects occurring for the holiday season, which traditionally brings up sentimental moments, memories, and feelings. The holidays can be very difficult for so many of us as childhood was not a cakewalk, and some of our memories, conditioning, and beliefs are woven with sorrow and grief. These "soft," heart-opening aspects can help us all "come in from the cold." May you have a blessed holiday season!

The more I believe in the spiritual world,
The more I see it exists
Within and between, tho not always seen,
Like love, it unites all that is.

Mercury is stationing retrograde NOW today, as it took me hours and hours to get up the hill to the trail, the car, the house, and the computer... OMG! However, it was interesting that I met two old friends and had an amazing sharing that would not have happened if I didn't get lost on the hillside! So Spirit works in mysterious ways, and we may be held up, held back, sidetracked, and frustrated, but Spirit is always working for the best interest of our soul development.

Let's be sure we get that right: I said SOUL development, not personality, ego, real estate, or muscle development, LOL! So, as I discuss in today's report, if you find yourself confused, perhaps lost, not knowing why or what is happening, you may just be in the "Spirit's Eye," being tossed and turned until it's time for you to come out just right!

Linking Tiwanaku and Pumapunku to Egypt and Easter Island, researchers and archaeologists have discovered connections between pre-diluvian civilizations due to the advanced engineering, precise astronomical alignments, and similar structures. With megalithic stonework and ruins linking ancient sites, experts are hypothesizing these wonders could belong to civilizations as old as Mu, Atlantis, or Lemuria.

2023-12-16 Cosmic Secrets Revealed-The Untold History of the Galactic Federation

https://thegalacticfederation.com/014-58?sessionId=f18a81f5-9ee8-43e8-9498-1de26b8e0acd&trigger_link=PqmwtyLz4vmxL50Wc9Ih

The Galactic Federation, also known as the Galactic Federation of Light or the Galactic Confederation, is an interplanetary alliance of civilizations from multiple star systems and galaxies that watch over the evolution of the Earth and guide humanity towards Ascension.

The Galactic Federation has several million members spanning hundreds of thousands of different worlds. These extraterrestrial civilizations have come from star systems in the Milky Way galaxy as well as Andromeda, Pleiades, and other nearby galaxies.

They have been watching over humans for thousands of years, if not longer. The Federation was originally formed over four million years ago in order to prevent inter-dimensional dark forces from dominating the galaxy in the Vega star system before expanding to include civilizations from Sirius, Alpha Centauri, Arcturus, Orion, and more.

Its initial establishment aimed to safeguard spiritual civilizations from the threat posed by the Dark Anchara Alliance. The Federation began with just a few hundred star systems and grew over millennia to include millions of star nations dedicated to the cause of supporting spiritual enlightenment throughout the Milky Way galaxy.

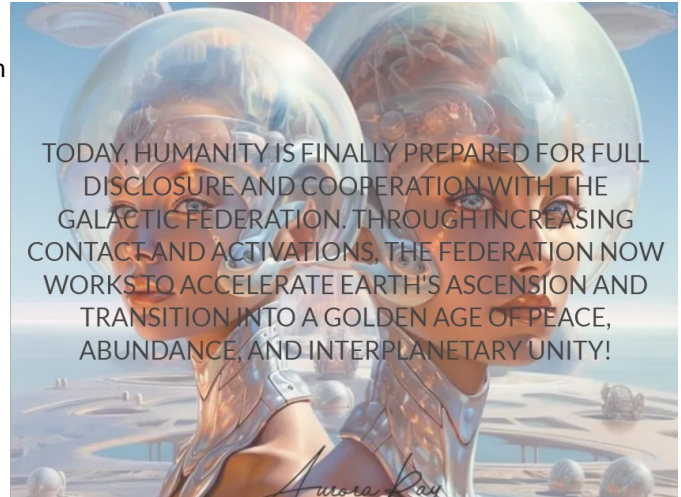

The Galactic Federation has a Prime Directive to allow civilizations to evolve without direct interference. However, they apparently make contact with select individuals on Earth to impart messages and teachings to help guide humanity's spiritual development and transition into a peaceful galactic society. Some contactees have physically met with extraterrestrial members of the Federation, while other communications are telepathic in nature.

The ultimate purpose of the Galactic Federation is to bring human civilization into the greater galactic community. They are especially focused on helping Earth transition into a higher age and dimension. This event, commonly referred to as Ascension, involves a quantum leap in spiritual evolution and consciousness expansion facilitated by vibrational increases and DNA upgrades.

The Federation is assisting with this process while also protecting the Earth from hostile alien influences.

Some of the key events in the history of the Galactic Federation include:

- Uniting the Andromedan and Milky Way galaxies approximately 2 million years ago after long periods of warring strife between the two regions. This marked a major milestone in establishing peace.
- Stopping the expansion plans of the reptilian race of Alpha Draconis around 1 million years ago. The Alpha Draconians had aimed to conquer many star systems but were defeated in a series of battles by the Federation.
- Ongoing monitoring of Earth's development and interactions with humanity over thousands of years. While not always intervening directly, the Federation has aimed to steer humanity's evolution in a positive direction and counter threats.

- Providing technological and spiritual support to enlightened civilizations such as Lemuria and Atlantis around 50,000 years ago, before both societies ultimately fell due to internal corruption and darkness.
- Working extensively from behind the scenes in recent decades to counteract regressive extraterrestrial influences over humanity, paving the way for massive spiritual awakening.

While the full scope of the Federation's activities may never be known, they have played a major role in shaping galactic history and spiritual evolution. Their core mission of spreading enlightenment continues to this day.

Galactic Federation's Relationship with Earth:

The Galactic Federation first made contact with Earth over 70 years ago, during the late 1940s and early 1950s. While the specifics of early contact remain unclear, reports indicate that the Federation approached Earth following humanity's first use of nuclear weapons at the end of World War II.

Concerned by humanity's destructive potential, the Federation is said to have begun monitoring Earth more closely while also attempting to make peaceful contact with world governments. Their early diplomatic efforts were met with fear and skepticism by most. However, a few isolated contactees and channelers did begin communicating with the Federation during this time.

Throughout the 50s and '60s, the Galactic Federation continued their watchful presence over humanity. Seeking to uplift consciousness and accelerate spiritual evolution, they provided inspiration and guidance to lightworkers and early New Age movements. However, no wide-scale contact occurred as humanity remained unevolved and gripped by conflict.

As humanity progressed into the 70s and beyond, the Federation stepped up their contact efforts through abduction experiences, channelings, and crop circles. While still cautious of directly intervening, they aimed to guide humanity's awakening by transmitting philosophy and visions of Ascension. The Federation's goal has been to help humanity manifest peace and reach a level of consciousness ready for open first contact and membership in the galactic community.

Today, humanity is finally prepared for full disclosure and cooperation with the Federation and their message of unity, service, and spiritual evolution.

Through increasing contact and activations, the Federation now works to accelerate Earth's Ascension and transition into a Golden Age of peace, abundance, and interplanetary unity!

We love you dearly,

We are here with you,

We are your family of light,

We are the Galactic Federation.

2023-12-15 Pleiadian Presence Grows: Thousands of Motherships Orbit Earth, Awaiting Call for Help!

https://thegalacticfederation.com/014-57?sessionId=f18a81f5-9ee8-43e8-9498-1de26b8e0acd&trigger_link=R0ICl87h19COcG8DqGka

The Pleiadian motherships are massive spacecrafts that have the capability to travel inter-dimensionally and intergalactically. They can range in size, with the largest being several miles long and capable of carrying thousands of people. The motherships act as home bases and command centers for the Pleiadians.

Some key capabilities of the Pleiadian motherships include:

- Interdimensional and intergalactic travel - The motherships can dematerialize into a higher dimension and re-materialize where they want to go in our physical universe. This allows them to cover vast interstellar distances.
- Cloaking technology - When near Earth, the motherships are able to cloak themselves and become invisible to humans. This cloaking tech may bend light around the crafts or shift their vibration to make them imperceptible.
- Advanced healing technology - The motherships contain advanced medical bays with regeneration tubs and the ability to scan and detect health issues. Pleiadians are known for their exceptional healing capabilities.
- Spiritual development and ascension tools - Motherships have areas designed to accelerate spiritual awakening and ascension. There are chambers where beings can undergo deep meditation, receive energy activations, and commune with spirit guides.
- Environmental and food generation - Pleiadian motherships are self-sustaining environments with nature-like settings. They can manifest or synthesize food as needed. The large ships have parks, living quarters, and community areas.
- Communication systems - Pleiadians can telepathically communicate with each other while on the ships. The motherships also act as relay stations for coordinating communications between Pleiadians across the galaxy.

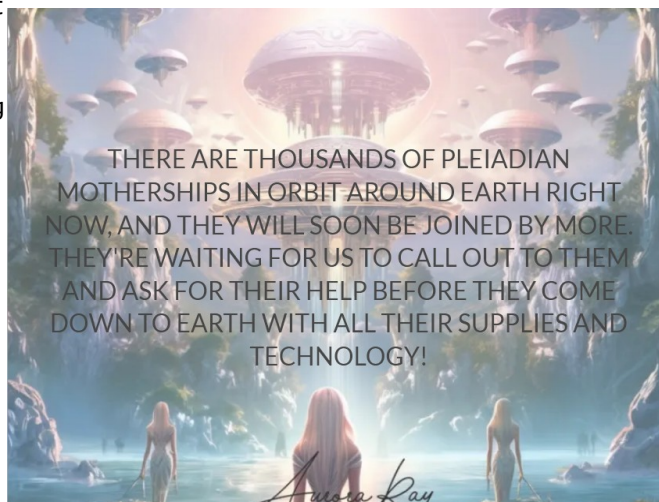

The motherships demonstrate the advanced technology and spiritual development of the Pleiadian civilization. They act as mobile bases for their activities, assisting humanity and ensuring peace throughout the universe. The massive ships will have a prominent role as Earth undergoes its ascension process.

They have been helping us since then and will continue to do so until we are ready to ascend into higher realms of consciousness where we can use our free will to create whatever we desire.

Everything is now in position for the commencement of the new era on Earth. The Pleiadian motherships are here to help. Using their 6D technology, they can assist our planet in its ascension process. The dark forces know all about the mother ships – they want to destroy them.

The actual reality that most people don't know is that a few motherships have been hidden in a secret location on Earth for many millennia, waiting for the right time to reveal themselves again!

This time is now! They will open up portals throughout our planet so that they can beam down supplies and material assistance to our people who need it most.

The mother ships will be able to beam down various types of food and supplies such as wheat, rice, seeds, beans, etc., as well as water purification supplies such as filters and desalination units so that those living in areas where there is no clean drinking water can have access to a source of fresh water once again (the water supply has been poisoned by manmade chemicals).

The dark forces are aware of Earth's ascension process and have been working hard to prevent it. They are aware that the mother ships are here to assist us, but they don't know exactly how they can do this.

The Pleiadian motherships employ 6D technology that facilitates the transition of humans from the third dimension (3D) to the fifth dimension (5D). This is their specialty. They are able to help Earth ascend by teaching us how to live in harmony with nature, love ourselves inside and out, and create a world where everybody has enough food, water, and shelter.

There are thousands of Pleiadian motherships in orbit around Earth right now, and they will soon be joined by more. They're waiting for us to call out to them and ask for their help before they come down to Earth with all their supplies and technology.

We have been given a choice: if you are a lightworker who wants to help make our planet better, then you need to get out there and work on your projects now! You need to put forth your best efforts into making your vision manifest so that it can be realized sooner than later!

If you are not working on any projects at all, then it's time for you to start because if we don't make some changes soon, we might be able to see things spiral out of control very quickly!

We love you dearly,

We are here with you,

We are your family of light,

We are the Galactic Federation.
